

OCTOBER 2011

Don't miss an evening of operatic bliss with star soprano Dame Kiri Te Kanawa on Saturday, October 1

Thursday, October 6

An Evening with LEE CATALUNA

6:30 pm, McCoy Studio Theater
$20

Award-winning author and playwright, Lee Cataluna, will read from her hilarious and heart-wrenchingly poignant new novel (set on Maui), Three Years on Doreen's Sofa, as well as from her best-selling book, Folks You Meet in Longs. Lee was born on Maui and was a journalist in Hawai'i for more than 20 years, working in local television, radio and print. Her many plays have been performed in theaters around the state.

Thursday, October 6

JOAN SORIANO

7:30 pm, Pavilion/Courtyard
$28 in advance, $33 day of show

Born in the rural countryside near Santo Domingo in the Dominican Republic, Joan Soriano infuses steel string bachata with equal parts romance and grit. He is the star of Adam Taub's The Duke of Bachata, was featured in Alex Wolfe's critically acclaimed documentary, Santo Domingo Blues, and has performed throughout the USA and Europe. Bachata is essential to Dominican culture and draws upon a variety of influences from Africa, Europe, Latin America and the Caribbean. A practitioner of palo and gaga, Joan blends traditional with new in his world beat music.

► The MACC is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization made possible by the generosity of people who love Maui

Key

MACC presents

Food & Beverages available before show

Post-show festivities in courtyard

- 1/2 price kids = age 12 & under (unless noted)
- $3 Facility Fee added to each ticket • Other fees may apply

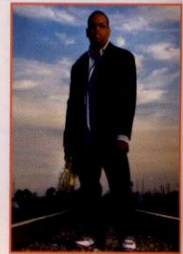

As a patron of live performing arts, please realize that any event is subject to change or cancellation, sometimes with little or no notice.

Friday, October 7

TERENCE BLANCHARD

7:30 pm, Pavilion/Courtyard
$35 in advance, $40 day of show

World renowned trumpeter, composer, bandleader, multiple Grammy award winner and Golden Globe-nominated film score composer, Blanchard has toured with the Lionel Hampton Orchestra; was a member of Art Blakey's legendary Jazz Messengers, and he ghosted the trumpet for Denzel Washington in Mo' Better Blues. He is recognized as the driving force for the resurgence of jazz compositions in film.

Saturday, October 8

SOLO SESSIONS: Robert Cazimero

7:30 pm, McCoy Studio Theater
$25 standard, $45 VIP

Robert Cazimero, award-winning singer, songwriter and kumu hula of Hālau Nā Kamalei and half of The Brothers Cazimero (with brother Roland), has been at the forefront of a resurgence of Hawaiian music, language, dance and culture since the 1970s. Robert shares songs from his new release, Hula and stories about his hālau in this up close, piano playing session.

Sunday, October 9

IMAGINATION MOVERS

1:30 pm & 4:30 pm, Castle Theater
$15, $25, $35, $45

Disney's popular TV show Imagination Movers features the music and antics of four movers - Rich, Scott, Dave and Smitty - who also form a concert band and have sold more than 200,000 CDs and DVDs to date. The Movers' new release of smartly crafted children's pop songs titled In A Big Warehouse features songs that are inspired by their kids at home as well as by the characters and storylines in the Movers' TV show. Their tunes reach across musical genres from hip-hop to country, old funk to new wave, cool grooves and pop-rock. The Warehouse is where the Movers meet old friends and make new fans, including special guests Nina, their hula dancing neighbor, and Warehouse Mouse.

the
MACC
 presents
 2011-2012
 EVENTS

Tickets
 242-SHOW
 www.maiarts.org

Open a door to a new world...

KŪ MAI KA HULA

Saturday, September 10
 1:00-6:00 pm
 Castle Theater

Kū Mai Ka Hula, "Hula Appears," is an international hula competition connecting Japan and Hawai'i, which features hālau winners from Japan's competition and hālau from Hawai'i in adult solo and group performances. The dancers compete in kahiko (traditional hula) and 'auana (modern-day hula stylings) in both male and female categories. Enjoy a memorable and inspiring day of hula and Hawaiian cultural arts.

TICKETS: $25 adults • $12.50 kids 12 years & under

Kū Mai Ka Hula

MAKANA BY MOONLIGHT

Friday, September 23
 7:30 pm, Pavilion/Courtyard

One of the hottest new-generation musicians to emerge from Hawai'i, Makana transcends type-casting in trend and music category by integrating elements of folk, rock, ethnic, classical, bluegrass, jazz and traditional Hawaiian to create a style all his own. The result is pure innovation, charting new sonic frontiers on his guitar and mesmerizing audiences with his expansive repertoire.

TICKETS: $30 STANDARD • $45 PREMIUM

DAME KIRI TE KANAWA

Saturday, October 1
 7:30 pm, Castle Theater

Enjoy a magical evening of operatic bliss with the first-ever Hawai'i appearance of internationally renowned soprano, Dame Kiri Te Kanawa, in recital accompanied by Pianist Terence Dennis of New Zealand. Dame Kiri gained legendary status in 1971 after her sensational debut at the Royal Opera House Covent Garden as the Countess Le Nozze di Figaro in The Marriage of Figaro. She has been established as a major international artist for four decades, and will perform selections from composers Scarlatti, Vivaldi, Handel, Liszt, Strauss, Canteloube, Rachmaninoff and more.

TICKETS: $75, $100, $125

AN EVENING WITH LEE CATALUNA

Thursday, October 6
 6:30 pm
 McCoy Studio Theater

Award-winning author and playwright, Lee Cataluna, will read from her hilarious and heart-wrenchingly poignant new novel (set on Maui), Three Years on Doreen's Sofa, as well as from her best-selling book, Folks You Meet in Longs. Lee was born on Maui and was a journalist in Hawai'i for more than 20 years, working in local television, radio and print. Her many plays have been performed in theaters around the state.

TICKETS: $20

JOAN SORIANO

Thursday, October 6
 7:30 pm, Pavilion/Courtyard

Born in the rural countryside near Santo Domingo in the Dominican Republic, Joan Soriano infuses steel string bachata with equal parts romance and grit. He is the star of Adam Taub's The Duke of Bachata, was featured in Alex Wolfe's critically acclaimed documentary, Santo Domingo Blues, and has performed throughout the USA and Europe. Bachata is essential to Dominican culture and draws upon a variety of influences from Africa, Europe, Latin America and the Caribbean. A practitioner of palo and gaga, Joan blends traditional with new in his world beat music.

TICKETS: $28 IN ADVANCE • $33 DAY OF SHOW

TERENCE BLANCHARD

Friday, October 7
7:30 pm, Pavilion/Courtyard

World-renowned trumpeter, composer, bandleader, multiple Grammy Award winner and Golden Globe-nominated film score composer. Blanchard has toured with the Lionel Hampton Orchestra; was a member of Art Blakey's legendary Jazz Messengers; and ghosted the trumpet for Denzel Washington in Mo' Better Blues. One of the most prolific jazz musicians to ever compose for movies, he is central to the resurgence of jazz composition in film.

TICKETS: $35 IN ADVANCE - $40 DAY OF SHOW

Solo Sessions: ROBERT CAZIMERO

Saturday, October 8
7:30 pm
McCoy Studio Theater

Robert Cazimero, award-winning singer, songwriter and kumu hula of Hālau Nā Kamalei and half of The Brothers Cazimero (with brother Roland), has been at the forefront of a resurgence of Hawaiian music, language, dance and culture since the 1970s. Robert shares songs from his new release, Hula, and stories about his hālau in this up close, piano playing session.

TICKETS: $25 STANDARD • $45 VIP

Dame Kiri Te Kanawa

Lee Cataluna

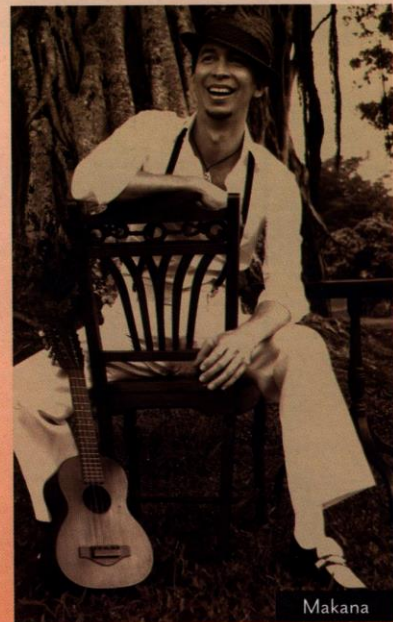

Robert Cazimero

Joan Sariano

Terence Blanchard

Makana